Code of Conduct for RD Homeschool Online Lessons 2025-2026

At RD Homeschool, we are committed to creating a safe, respectful, and productive learning environment for all students participating in our online lessons. To ensure a positive experience for everyone, we have established the following code of conduct, which applies to both students and parents:

1. Use of Webcam and Safeguarding:

- For safeguarding purposes, all students are required to have their webcam enabled and positioned appropriately throughout the duration of the lesson.
- Parents are encouraged to supervise younger students during online lessons to ensure their safety and engagement.

2. Punctuality:

- Students are expected to join online lessons promptly at the scheduled start time.
- If a student anticipates being late or unable to attend a lesson, they should notify their teacher or the RD Homeschool support team in advance.

3. Respectful Behaviour:

- All participants, including students, parents, and teachers, are expected to treat each other with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Disruptive behaviour, including but not limited to, disrespectful language, bullying, or harassment, will not be tolerated.

3a. Clothing:

- All participants should wear suitable clothing ensuring that areas of skin are respectfully covered.

4. Microphone Usage:

- To minimize background noise and distractions, students are asked to keep their microphones muted when not actively participating in the lesson.
- When students wish to contribute to the lesson or ask questions, they should unmute their microphone and wait for the teacher's acknowledgment.

5. Engagement and Participation:

- Students are encouraged to actively engage in the lesson by participating in discussions, asking questions, and completing assigned tasks.
- Parents are encouraged to support their child's learning by providing assistance as needed and encouraging participation.

6. Technical Requirements:

- Participants are responsible for ensuring they have a stable internet connection and access to the necessary technology (e.g., computer, webcam, microphone) to participate in online lessons.
- If technical issues arise, participants should notify their teacher or the RD Homeschool support team for assistance.

7. Privacy and Confidentiality:

- Participants are expected to respect the privacy and confidentiality of others in the online learning environment.
- Recording or sharing of online lessons, including screenshots or other media, without prior consent is strictly prohibited.

By participating in RD Homeschool online lessons, students and parents agree to abide by this code of conduct. Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in disciplinary action, including temporary or permanent suspension from the online learning platform.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this code of conduct, please feel free to contact our support team for assistance. Thank you for your cooperation in helping us maintain a positive and productive learning environment for all.
